

Kids Eat Smart Foundation Appoints New Chair of Board of Directors

Paul McDonald Appointed New Chair of Kids Eat Smart Foundation Board of Directors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 10, 2010, ST. JOHN'S – Kids Eat Smart Foundation would like to congratulate Paul McDonald, partner in the St. John's office of Cox & Palmer, upon his appointment as the new Chair of the Kids Eat Smart Foundation Board of Directors. Mr. McDonald was appointed this position at a Kids Eat Smart Foundation board meeting on May 31, 2010.

“Paul has been a member of our Board for the past two years and we are pleased to have him move into the role of Chair of our Foundation,” says Kids Eat Smart Foundation Executive Director, Daphne LeDrew, “and we look forward the future under his leadership.”

Paul McDonald is a former President of the Law Society of Newfoundland and Labrador, and is Adjunct Professor (Community Health and Humanities) with the Faculty of Medicine at Memorial University. His practice is focused primarily on Health Law, Estates and Trusts and Civil Litigation. In 2002, the Newfoundland and Labrador Branch of Canadian Bar Association awarded Mr. McDonald its Distinguished Public Service Award.

Kids Eat Smart Foundation Newfoundland and Labrador is a registered charity that supports education, health, and well-being of school-aged children through quality nutrition programs called Kids Eat Smart Clubs. The Foundation has established over 200 breakfast, lunch and snack Clubs throughout the province, which are available to more than 52,000 children on any given school day. Kids Eat Smart Foundation is supported by the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador as well as corporate partners, and donors.
